CACHET WINE

Château Capet Duverger 2019, Saint Emilion Grand Cru

Code CAPE095

The estate has been owned by the Duverger family for nine generations. The current owner, Michel Duverger, former president of the Union des Producteurs de Saint-Émilion, continues to uphold his family's legacy with the production of a classic Saint-Émilion Grand Cru from his 7.68 hectares of vines. A Merlot-based wine, made up of 65% Merlot and 35% Cabernet Franc boasts a strong structure, with rich, spicy fruit and remarkable length. The juicy plummy black fruits are complemented by fine tannins and the subtle complexity of Cabernet Franc. Aged in barrels, with 30% being new, it offers depth and refinement.

Tasting Notes:

A Merlot-based wine, it boasts a strong structure, with rich, spicy fruit and remarkable length. The juicy plummy black fruits are complemented by fine tannins and the subtle complexity of Cabernet Franc. Aged in barrels, with 30% being new, it offers depth and refinement

CACHET WINE

Specification
Vinification	The vineyard is cultivated sustainably, with respect for the environment and biodiversity and has gained the HVE Certification. Aged in barrels, with 30% being new, it offers depth and refinement.
ABV	13.5%
Size	75cl
Drinking Window	Drink now
Country	France
Region	Bordeaux
Area	Saint-Émilion
Type	Red Wine
Grape Mix	65% Merlot, 35% Cabernet Franc
Vintage	2019
Body	Rich, robust and round
Producer	Château Capet Duverger
Producer Overview	Owned by Michel Duverger, former longstanding president of the co-op, who had been the driving force to improve the overall quality of the Château estates belonging to the Union, Château Capet Duverger is one of the examples of this success story with its classic Saint Emilion Grand Cru style.
Closure Type	Cork