

Chateau de Sannes Grand Blanc de Sannes

Code

SANN010

The Grand Blanc de Sannes is a delight! Balanced with explosive aromatic complexity - a wine that is both rich and fresh.

Tasting Notes:

Straw yellow in colour with golden hue in the glass. Aromas of white flowers grapefruit and lime. On tasting, hints of violet, spiced vanilla, apples and pears. Lively acidity.

Vinification Chateau de Sannes boast rich soil with rocky scree and clay producing robust and weil-structured wines; its mari and molasse stones add roundness, and its 'safe' soils craete elegant wines that reveal a wondrefut complexity. Luberon's feed of sunshine and an aristat with that naturally cleaness their vines. This wine comes from a parcel selection of vines with an average age of 25 years and 100-year-old subdiding and pre-harvest sorting. The parcels have been in the process of converting to organic farming since 2017. Biodynamic principles are strictly adirected to throughout the process. ABV 13.5% Size 75d Country France Region Rhône Valley Area Luberon Type White Wine Genres Blodynamic, Organic Genres Blodynamic, Organic Style Dry Body Elegant, crisp and delicate Producer Chateau de Sannes Producer Overview The Sannes vineyard flourishes in the heart of the spectacular Luberon Regional Nature park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic roys. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Nix, Syrsh, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Upin Blanc, Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragramors - a symbolic feature of the Domaine. It all began with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion ere	Specification
Drinking Window Drink now Country France Region Rhône Valley Area Luberon Type White Wine Grape Mix Siew Siew Siew Style Body Body Broducer Chateau de Sannes The Sannes vineyard flourishes in the heart of the spectacular Luberon Regional Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic corps. Certified ECOEERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. So fits 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragrances - a symbolic feature of the Domaine, It all began with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior, transformed the pavilion into a seigneurial manor house. Read more online	Vinification	well-structured wines; its marl and molasse stones add roundness; and its 'safre' soils create elegant wines that reveal a wonderful complexity. Luberon's Mediterranean climate, with a few alpine influences, bestows an exceptional amount of sunshine and a mistral wind that naturally cleanses their vines. This wine comes from a parcel selection of vines with an average age of 25 years and 100-year-old Ugni blancs planted in 1926. Vines benefit from double cordon de royat pruning, disbudding and pre-harvest sorting. The parcels have been in the process of converting to organic farming since 2017. Biodynamic principles are strictly
Drinking Window Drink now Country France Region Rhône Valley Area Luberon Type White Wine Grape Mix 35% Vermentino, 35% Ugni Blanc, 30% Grenache Blanc Genres Biodynamic, Organic Vintage 2021 Style Dry Body Elegant, crisp and delicate Producer Chateau de Sannes Producer Overview The Sannes vineyard flourishes in the heart of the spectacular Luberon Regional Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic crosps. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragrances - a symbolic feature of the Domaine. It all began with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior, transformed the pavillion into a seigneurial manor house. Read more online	ABV	13.5%
Country France Region Rhône Valley Area Luberon Type White Wine Grape Mix 35% Vermentino, 35% Ugni Blanc, 30% Grenache Blanc Genres Biodynamic, Organic Vintage 2021 Style Dry Body Elegant, crisp and delicate Producer Chateau de Sannes Producer Overview The Sannes vineyard flourishes in the heart of the spectacular Luberon Regional Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic crops. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragrances - a symple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior, transformed the pavilion into a seigneurial manor house. Read more online Closure Type Cork	Size	75cl
Region Rhône Valley Area Luberon Type White Wine Grape Mix 35% Vermentino, 35% Ugni Blanc, 30% Grenache Blanc Genres Biodynamic, Organic Vintage 2021 Style Dry Body Elegant, crisp and delicate Producer Chateau de Sannes The Sannes vineyard flourishes in the heart of the spectacular Luberon Regional Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic crops. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragrances - a symbolic feature of the Domaine. It all began with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior, transformed the pavilion into a seigneurial manor house. Read more online	Drinking Window	Drink now
Type White Wine Grape Mix 35% Vermentino, 35% Ugni Blanc, 30% Grenache Blanc Genres Biodynamic, Organic Vintage 2021 Style Dry Body Elegant, crisp and delicate Producer Cherview The Sannes vineyard flourishes in the heart of the spectacular Luberon Regional Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic crops. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragrances - a symbolic feature of the Domaine. It all began with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior, transformed the pavilion into a seigneurial manor house. Read more online Closure Type Luberon White Wine Style Style	Country	France
Type White Wine Grape Mix 35% Vermentino, 35% Ugni Blanc, 30% Grenache Blanc Genres Biodynamic, Organic Vintage 2021 Style Dry Body Elegant, crisp and delicate Producer Chateau de Sannes The Sannes vineyard flourishes in the heart of the spectacular Luberon Regional Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic crops. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragrances - a symbolic feature of the Domaine. It all began with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior, transformed the pavilion into a seigneurial manor house. Read more online Closure Type Cork	Region	Rhône Valley
Grape Mix Style Dry Body Elegant, crisp and delicate Producer Overview The Sannes vineyard flourishes in the heart of the spectacular Luberon Regional Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic crops. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior, transformed the pavilion into a seigneurial manor house. Read more online Closure Type Cork	Area	Luberon
Genres Biodynamic, Organic Vintage 2021 Style Dry Body Elegant, crisp and delicate Producer Chateau de Sannes Producer Overview The Sannes vineyard flourishes in the heart of the spectacular Luberon Regional Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic crops. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragrances - a symbolic feature of the Domaine. It all began with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior, transformed the pavilion into a seigneurial manor house. Read more online Closure Type Cork	Туре	White Wine
Style Style Dry Body Elegant, crisp and delicate Producer Chateau de Sannes The Sannes vineyard flourishes in the heart of the spectacular Luberon Regional Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic crops. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragrances - a symbolic feature of the Domaine. It all began with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior, transformed the pavilion into a seigneurial manor house. Read more online Closure Type Cork	Grape Mix	35% Vermentino, 35% Ugni Blanc, 30% Grenache Blanc
Style Dry Body Elegant, crisp and delicate Producer Chateau de Sannes The Sannes vineyard flourishes in the heart of the spectacular Luberon Regional Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic crops. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragrances - a symbolic feature of the Domaine. It all began with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior, transformed the pavilion into a seigneurial manor house. Read more online Closure Type Cork	Genres	Biodynamic, Organic
Body Elegant, crisp and delicate Chateau de Sannes The Sannes vineyard flourishes in the heart of the spectacular Luberon Regional Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic crops. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragrances - a symbolic feature of the Domaine. It all began with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior, transformed the pavilion into a seigneurial manor house. Read more online Closure Type Cork	Vintage	2021
Producer Overview The Sannes vineyard flourishes in the heart of the spectacular Luberon Regional Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic crops. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragrances - a symbolic feature of the Domaine. It all began with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior, transformed the pavilion into a seigneurial manor house. Read more online Closure Type Cork	Style	Dry
Producer Overview The Sannes vineyard flourishes in the heart of the spectacular Luberon Regional Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic crops. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragrances - a symbolic feature of the Domaine. It all began with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior, transformed the pavilion into a seigneurial manor house. Read more online Closure Type Cork	Body	Elegant, crisp and delicate
Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic crops. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragrances - a symbolic feature of the Domaine. It all began with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior, transformed the pavilion into a seigneurial manor house. Read more online Closure Type Cork	Producer	Chateau de Sannes
··	Producer Overview	Nature Park, which is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and a region ideal for organic crops. Certified ECOCERT organic agriculture since 2020, the vineyard has planted 33 hectares of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Ugni Blanc. Sannes has 35 of its 70 hectares dedicated to vines as well as its French garden along with its fragrances - a symbolic feature of the Domaine. It all began with the building of Sannes Castle - a simple pavilion erected by Jean de Thibaud de Tisati, advisor to the king in in 1603. By 1661 his son, Melchior,
	Closure Type	Cork
Food Matches Drink with Lobster or wild asparagus risotto	Food Matches	Drink with Lobster or wild asparagus risotto