

Grenache Blanc 172, De Visu

Code

DEVI010

A charming southern French wine from our old friend, the talented Xavier Roger, whose name derives from the vine's growth cycle. Exactly 172 days between the bud break in the Spring and the leaf fall in the Autumn.

Tasting Notes:

Rich and expressive with notes of white peach, mango and a touch of lime blossom.

Vinification The first step in crafting this Grenache is picking the grapes at perfect maturity to create a rich and balanced white wine. The pressing is very gentle in a pneumatic press with an extraction of the premium juices only. The fermentation is driven in stainless steel vats with temperature control (16/18°C). The wine is kept on its fine lees with regular stirring before bottling. 12% 75cl Drinking Window Drink now France Languedoc-Roussillon White Wine Grenache Blanc Vegan, Vegetarian 2024 Dry Elegant, crisp and delicate Producer Xavier Roger Producer Overview Mastering the nuances of Southern French varietals and combining traditional and modern winemaking techniques, Xavier Roger wines are a superb example of the quality that are now being produced in the South of France. Closure Type Screw Cap Food Matches Enjoy with spaghetti carbonara.

> Jancisrobinson.com, 2023, 15.5 "Mango and lovage cream. An almost dessert-like richness but with Grenache Blanc's classic 'toasted-porridge' savouriness showing through on the end. Not long, but perfect for a creamy chicken bake!" Brian Elliott, Midweek Wines, January 2022: "Once largely a winemaker's "texture adding" bit-part player in France's Rhône Valley, the white version of grenache increasingly secures solo roles nowadays, particularly in the new world but - as in this example - also in Languedoc.
