

Minervois Rouge 2020, Pierre Cros

Code

CROS185

A blend of Carignan, Grenache, Syrah and Cinsault, , this is a super little wine that punches way above its station!

Tasting Notes:

The bouquet is complex with fragrant red and black fruits and spicy overtones. The palate is smooth and full bodied, beautiful and velvety in texture with a delicious spice giving an extra dimension.

Vinification A field blend of Grenache, Syrah, Mourvedre, Carignan and Cinsault - hand picked from low yielding vines. Pierre makes concentrated wines and his extractions are warm and long to maximise fruit, tannin sand freshness. after desterming, fermentation is carried out in concrete tanks with twice daily pumpovers initially. Following that the wine is transferred into large oak vats for 6 months ABV	Specification

Above all he is a great character. His domaine is situated in the small village of Badens in the Minervois, surrounded by the Canal du Midit to the South and the Montagne Noire to the North. It is here in the intense heat of the southern sun that little else grows except the vine and olive treeand it is here that Pierre Cros cultivates his 20 hectares of vines including the classic Southern French varieties of Grenache, Carignan and Syrah as well as some very interesting Touriga Nacional and Nebbiolo. Low yield and vines dating from 1906 contribute to the production of some extremely fascinating and popular wines which are deep and structured and very enjoyable.
